Who uses Jellyfeet™?

Jellyfeet™ are used by men, women, and children for moisturizing and hydrating, and protecting their feet. To anyone looking for freedom of movement in their everyday activities, Jellyfeet™ are for you!

Jellyfeet™ are designed for men, women, and children of any age for multiple uses, 365 days a year.

Jellyfeet™ foot covers are created as a comfortable, protective, and water-resistant solution to bare feet, dirty socks, slippery sandals, or bulky shoes. They are also made to work in multiple environments.

Jellyfeet™ are created with Health and Fitness in mind along with providing a comfortable and sanitary solution for many of life's daily activities.

After years of traveling through dirty airports, walking on unsanitary hotel floors and feeling uneasy about health club showers, the co-creators of Jellyfeet™ designed this solution.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. Can Jellyfeet™ be worn both indoors & outdoors?

Yes, Jellyfeet™ are made to work in multiple environments. Whether you're relaxing at the beach and need to protect your feet from sand, debris, and other unknowns, enjoying a spa day with your friends in communal areas, experiencing a yoga class, walking through airport security, or in need of immediate high heel relief, Jellyfeet™ reusable foot protectors does it all. Jellyfeet™ can be worn indoors, outdoors, 365 days a year promoting freedom of movement, flexibility, compression, comfort, and protection. These revolutionary products offer a myriad of multi-use functionality for women, men, youth of all ages.

2. How can Jellyfeet™ be reused & cared for?

If taken care of properly, you should be able to use your Jellyfeet™ over 166 times! (tested while using product indoors, carpeted flooring). We recommend washing your Jellyfeet™ with lukewarm water and soap and air-drying. We also found that adding baby powder inside the products help promote multiple uses. Other foot powders may be effective like any kind of medications, foot powders, foot creams, and topical emollients.

3. What size is right for me?

Currently we have sizes 6 to 14+ for men and sizes 5- 12+ for women. We plan to produce more sizes for adults as well as kids. Sign up for our newsletter to find out when they will be available. Be sure to check out our size chart on our website for more information on finding your size.

4. Can I wear Jellyfeet™ over my socks?

Yes you can! By doing this, you may feel additional warmth and comfort. They can also be worn over stockings, leggings, or simply over your bare feet. Not your shoes, some people have asked. But best all, you can apply your favorite moisturizers, lotions, essential oils, foot powders and more inside of them! Jellyfeet™ helps prevent dry, crack, rough feet. It also protects your feet from all the dangerous debris that your feet can be exposed to on a daily basis.

5. What is the difference between wearing my socks and wearing Jellyfeet™?

Unlike most socks, Jellyfeet™ are water-resistant, immediately reusable, durable, provide compression, protection, and comfort, but best all, you can apply your favorite moisturizers, lotions, essential oils, foot powders and more inside of them! Jellyfeet™ helps prevent dry, crack, rough feet. They also protect your feet from all the dangerous debris that your feet can be exposed to on a daily basis.

6. What is the product made of?

Jellyfeet™ are made of non-Latex, non-allergenic materials and are safe for your feet and environment.

7. Where can I buy Jellyfeet™?

Jellyfeet™ are available online at www.jellyfeet.com!

We have been growing steadily and are always looking to align ourselves with more retail partners that would be able to supply Jellyfeet (tm) in stores near you. Help us spread the word by Liking us on Facebook and Following us on Twitter, Instagram, Pinterest, YouTube, and Google Plus!

8. Can I buy Jellyfeet™ in bulk? How much does it cost per unit?

Yes! For larger orders, pricing, and wholesale opportunities, please contact us at: info@jellyfeet365.com.

9. Can Jellyfeet™ replace a shoe and prevent sharp objects from entering your feet?

Jellyfeet™ are not meant to replace shoes, but more or less socks as foot covers. Think of gloves for your hands when working, their sole purpose is to prevent your hands from getting exposed to debris, or material that could negatively impact your hands. Jellyfeet™ are protection for your feet, meant to be used on-the-go, short-term situations like doing yoga, traveling through airport security, at the pool or sauna, and around the public areas where it is required for you to remove your shoes. In these cases, you can put on our foot covers over your socks or stockings to prevent them from getting dirty or wet.

10. Can I have my Doctor to recommend Jellyfeet™?

Absolutely! The best recommendation that we would suggest is to simply ask your doctor or primary health provider to offer you Jellyfeet™. Currently, Jellyfeet™ can be found in a few compounding pharmacies within Minneapolis. We are continuing to gain the support of Doctors of Podiatry as we work to spread the word about Jellyfeet™.

We are excited to share that we've aligned our product and our brand with Teresa Alpert, Certified Orthotist. In her endorsement, Teresa Alpert stated that Jellyfeet™ is a perfect fit for many of her clients who use medicated ointments or healing lotions to keep their feet healthy. "Jellyfeet™ works very well even when my patients have ointment on their feet," she said. "It says a lot about Jellyfeet's™ design and its durability to provide a covering that keeps feet clean and safe."

"A friend of mine recommended getting Jellyfeet™ after I was complaining about walking around in the gym bare foot. Since then I use it all the time at home, airports and hotels. Highly recommend getting a pair for family and friends!"

Matt D. – Columbia, SC

"What an idea! I tried out my first pair of Jellyfeet™ and I'm sold. They're very comfortable and I plan on wearing them to yoga as well as throwing them in my suitcase when I travel. I also like the idea that they're reusable. I will definitely recommend them."

Nikki J. – Edina, MN

"The Jellyfeet that I purchased are wonderful! At night, I used moisturizer on dry, cracked heels and then put my "Jellys" on. In just a few short days, my feet were smooth and sexy again. What a revolutionary product! Every woman should have at least 1 pair."
